The Number 7

Alludes to more than 70 times 7 wise men who have bought one of our light weight suits for $7.00. It further alludes to 7 good reasons why you should buy one today. First, the styles are correct; second, they are honestly made; third, they fit perfectly; fourth, they give long-look-well-wear; fifth, this may be your last chance; sixth, the price is less than half the value; seventh, last and most potent reason, all of the foregoing is the plain truth. If you should buy and find it otherwise your money will be returned by

"I want to state," said Mr. Walsh, "and I want to state it with all sincerity, and with no purpose of flattery, that the EAGLE is doing more to attract business to Wichita than any other agency. I find in my travels everywhere merchants reading the EAGLE. The business advertising page is doing a world of good, as it shows merchants everywhere the names of the business institutions and what they keep. I never, in all my life, recognized the power of a good newspaper, in the good it can do for its city, so fully and clearly as I have done since I became acquainted with the commercial trade of southern Kansas and Oklahoma."

The water supply of our steadily increasing list of cities and towns is the result of an expenditure of public money aggregating a vast amount. Every municipality, great and small is confronted with the problem of how best to prevent the sources of its supply from being tainted with impurities.

And they will find many impurities but we defy anyone to find any impurities or any defects in our $15 and $18 suits now on sale.

Evanson can always be relied upon for a good story. Between the university and the enforcement of the prohibition laws something is always happening that is unique. Even the ragpickers in the college town are able to contribute to the general entertainment if they do not realize the point of their remarks. A few days ago one of Evanson's philanthropic citizens, who has a heart big enough to take in the interests of every one, from the highest to the lowest, asked an old rag picker who has been around there for years, how he found business.

"Well, Evanson ain't much of a place for rags, but it's a great place for bottles!" was the reply.—Chicago Post.

PRINCE ROPED IN

MISS FLORENCE PULLMAN GETS INTO ROYAL AUSTRIAN FAMILY.

But Her Papa, the Palace Car Man, Made the Isenburg-Birstein Family Agree That the Offspring From the Union Shall Possess all the Rights of Succession, Dignities and Hereditary Privileges—Will Be a Princess.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The engagement is announced of Miss Florence Pullman, daughter of George M. Pullman, to Prince of Isenburg-Birstein, the eldest son of the Prince Charles of Isenburg-Birstein and the Arch Duchess Marie Louise of Austria, a cousin of the emperor of Austria.

Miss Pullman's father only consented to his daughter's engagement on condition that the children shall possess the full rights of succession to the title, dignities and hereditary privileges of the house of Isenburg-Birstein. According to the Austrian law, however, the magnates of the house of Isenburg-Birstein, by formal document, recognize the equality of Mr. Pullman's grand-children with their own descendants. If Miss Pullman could obtain the title of princess from some high court this difficulty would be overcome. The marriage has long been anticipated but it has been frequently denied by the father. Miss Pullman first met the prince at an eastern watering place. He is not considered to have wealth to any large amount.

ALTOGETHER AT PULLMAN.
